WATER, SUN, REFLECTIONS

Well known landscape artist Robert Perry's popular selling exhibition continues through July. Painting on location at the river-estuaries around Barmouth and Tywyn in mid-North Wales, Robert's aim was 'to capture the pure brilliance of the winter sun particularly when reflected on the wind-generated ripples of the water.'

The resulting paintings would add a dramatic statement to any interior.

Prices start at £495.

SANDERS & WALLACE GLASS

Andrew Sanders and David Wallace share a small workshop where they use traditional glassmaking tools and techniques to produce beautiful contemporary blown glass. Each piece is entirely handmade and signed by either Andrew or David.

Prices start at £49.

COUNTRY LIFE

Lesley Nason creates atmospheric wall and stand-alone pieces inspired by the animals and countryside surrounding her Derbyshire home. Her initial sketches are transferred to porcelain clay using texture, oxide, resist and crackle glazes. Perfect for Nature lovers.

Prices start at £65.

NATURAL PATTERN

Simon Denvers' intricately patterned clocks and coasters reflect his fascination with the mathematics of Nature.

'My greatest influence is Nature itself, particularly when mathematics can be used to model natural forms and shapes.'

Prices start at £35.

QUIETLY CONTEMPLATIVE new Basia Roszak Paintings

Basia's sensitively observed figurative art captures her subjects as they go about their everyday activities or engage in quieter moments of contemplation, and have a strong dream-like quality. This is further enhanced by the floating bubbles which inhabit her paintings.

'The bubbles present in all my paintings represent fragile moments and moods of the people frozen with the use of oil paint'.

Prices start at £350.

THERE'S MORTAR THIS DECKCHAIR THAN MEETS THE EYE

Designed and made by Sarah Christensen, this striking deckchair, with concrete impregnated canvas, defies expectations and is incredibly comfortable. Sarah is a designer who has emerged from the contemporary art scene. Combining this background with an enthusiasm for making things, has resulted in the creation of pieces combining functionality with cutting edge design.

EAST MEETS WEST new jewellery by Saima Hussain

Saima Hussain's jewellery designs are inspired by the multitude of intricate patterns found in India and the more organic, fluid designs of the Western world. Her beautiful pieces are handcrafted in precious materials and are a perfect fusion of the two cultures, a fresh new perspective on East meets West.
